

MAHARAJA INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY
THANDAVAPURA

STAFF HAND BOOK

PREFACE TO STAFF HANDBOOK

Maharaja Institute of Technology Thandavapura was established in 2016 with a humble yet ambitious beginning. Since then, with a firm intention of bettering the quality of education, the resolute emphasis has been on the manner it functions as a single well-knit system. Societal acceptance and recognition of the larger public have been garnered due to continuous improvement in all facets of the system that is in place at the institute.

The enthusiasm for accomplishing the vision of being recognized as the prominent institute calls for strategies that pinpoint areas that pragmatically and potentially propel the institute to the level of being recognized as a benchmark in the field of education. Narrowing it down to the most feasible and then furthering it would require a fitting system of transparency and accountability functioning, be it general or specific.

The growth and prosperity of the institute is a reflection of how every single member of the system contributes. With this view, "The Staff Handbook" is meant to expand the various definitions and terms of how various personnel in the functional hierarchy are to perform as well as contribute to the overall growth of the institute. All generic formats, procedures and objectives have been explained for ease of effectual understanding.

Chapter 1

THE INSTITUTE

The Maharaja Institute of Technology Thandavapura was established in the year 2016, it is the second engineering institute under the ambit of Maharaja Education Trust ®, Mysore.

The Institute aims at imparting good education with an emphasis on developing the overall personality of its students in addition to instilling moral values. We, in this institution, strive hard to shape the students in such a way that they would transform into an asset to the community and the nation at large.

1.1 Vision

To be recognized as a premier institute in creating competent graduates driven towards socio-technical needs.

1.2 Mission

1. To exhibit quality in the processes of teaching and learning evolved through continual feedback.
2. To create an ecosystem of greater learning through research and innovation.
3. To engage in self-learning through interaction with industry and alumni.
4. To maintain professional and ethical approach in dealing with stakeholders.

1.3 The Core Values

1. Encourage learning and leadership
2. Discipline, Diligence, and Perseverance
3. Integrity with Accountability and ethics
4. Social Responsibility for the furtherance of society
5. Cultural Affinity.

1.4 The Faculty

Under the guidance of Dr. Y T Krishne Gowda, B.E., M.E (IISC), Ph.D.(IITM), the Principal of the Institute, the faculty and staff are committed to nurturing a new generation of students who would be the forerunners in the process of Technical advancement, by adhering to all quality assurance requirements as deemed necessary by the accrediting agencies.

1.5 The Staff Handbook

This constitutes the written collection and summary of policies, procedures, and rules and regulations, as well as behavioral norms that are to be upheld by the staff of the institute, in the context of the institute, that encompasses the code of conduct.

Essentially, the purpose of the Staff Handbook is to define and elaborate professional and ethical values along with the principles relevant to the progress of the institute.

1.6 Organization Chart

Chapter 2
DUTIES, ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Objective: To ensure an ambiance of professional culture, that is respectful of human dignity, and while facilitating its proliferation to the student community.

Preamble: Faculty Members of the institute are to follow the rules and regulations as presented in this “Staff Handbook”. Any deviation from the stated rules and regulations shall invite disciplinary actions as per the MITT employee service rules.

2.1 General Duties and Responsibilities

- 1 All teaching and non-teaching faculty shall adhere to the hierarchy established at the institute. All official correspondences shall strictly follow this hierarchy. Not upholding the established hierarchy is deemed as gross insubordination.
 - a) The official assignments/ jobs /subjects/laboratory etc. shall follow the top-down approach in the hierarchy.
- 2 A five-day working schedule from Monday to Friday is followed except the first and third Saturdays. Classes are scheduled from 8.30 am to 4.15 p.m.
- 3 Institute working hours are usually are from 8.30 a.m. to 4.15 p.m. However, those who have an academic, administrative, examination, or any other such work shall follow any other timing as directed by the HOD/Principal.
- 4 All members of the staff shall be at their workplace (offices, classrooms, labs, staff room, etc.) at least 10 minutes before the commencement of classes and should leave the college not earlier than 10 minutes after the end of the last hour.
- 5 All members of staff are expected to present themselves in decent attire.
- 6 Anyone needing to go out of the College premises during working hours (except lunch break) shall seek the necessary permission from the HOD/Principal and mark the entry of his/her absence details in the OUT and IN timing Register kept at the gate).

- 7 Staff members shall compulsorily wear College ID while on the College premises.
- 8 Faculty and staff shall communicate with each other and with students preferably in the medium of communication of the Programme i.e. English.
- 9 Faculty shall ensure that discipline is maintained in the classroom, labs, and college premises. In case of serious matters of indiscipline, the same shall be reported to the HOD/ Principal.
- 10 Staff members shall neither use mobile phones in the corridors of the premises nor during their instructional hours. However, they may use them in their cabins/rooms.
- 11 Staff members shall submit their investment details to the Account Section before 7th January each year in the prescribed form to enable them to deduct the tax at source, failing which Income Tax shall be deducted as per rules.

2.2 The Job Description

2.2.1 In General

1. The workload of all the staff is as per the AICTE norms. The workload of the faculty should not be less than 36 hours a week, of which teaching-contact hours should be at least as per AICTE norms:

Table 2.1 Minimum Academic Workload Requirement

S/L	Designation	Min. Hours/ week	Min. Units/ Week
1	Principal	4	8
2	Dean / Professor	8	16
3	Associate Professor	12	24
4	Assistant Professor	16	32

For the above stipulations, two tutorial hours/two laboratory/Drawing hours will be counted as one teaching hour. An hour/week = 2 units/week. The work plan of teachers shall ensure, in the most productive manner, the utilization of the stipulated working hours per week, concerning the roles, jobs, and targets assigned to them by the heads of the departments.

2. The Faculty Member must strive to prepare himself/herself academically to meet all the challenges and requirements using the methodology of teaching so that the input may be useful for the student community at large. Every Faculty Member is expected to extend his/her beneficial influence in building up the personality of students and he/she should associate himself/herself actively with such extra-curricular activities which he/she is interested in or assigned to him/her from time to time.
3. Faculty Members are expected to update their knowledge by attending seminars/workshops/conferences, after obtaining necessary permission from the Concerned Authority and upon completion of such attendance/ participation shall submit a report of the same to the concerned authority for claiming financial incentives. Faculty are expected to participate in such events at least once a semester.
4. Faculty Members should attempt to publish textbooks, research papers in reputed International / Indian Journals / Conferences and the relevant financial incentives may be claimed as per prevalent schemes abiding by the regulations instituted in the institute, as detailed in section 2.8, 2.9, 2.10, and 2.11 of this handbook.
5. Faculty members are encouraged to engage in constructive discussion amongst peers and shall withhold from propagating negative agendas that potentiate the decline of the image of the institute.

2.2.2 In the Department

1. The Faculty Member should always first bring to the notice of the HOD and keep the HOD in confidence about the member's own professional and personal well-being.

2. The teaching load will be allotted by the HOD after taking into account the Faculty Member's interests and area of specialization
3. In addition to teaching, the Faculty Member should take additional responsibilities as assigned by the HOD/Principal in academic, co-curricular, or extracurricular activities.
4. Every Faculty Member should maintain students' attendance records and the absentees' roll number should be noted every day in the ERP software of the Institute as soon as the classes/laboratory hours are over.
5. Whenever a Faculty Member intends to take leave, the Faculty Member should get the leave sanctioned in advance, and with proper alternate arrangements made for class/lab/invigilation then apply for the leave through the online leave portal of the institute's website. In the case of an emergency, the HOD must be informed with appropriate alternate arrangements suggested.
6. The Faculty Member shall present himself/herself to the office in decent attire.
7. The faculty member shall function impartially in dealing with students alike.
8. The faculty member shall provide academic counseling to the students as needed.
9. The faculty member shall communicate any mishaps in the class/ labs/ tutorials/ Office space/ Institute's premises to the HoD/ Principal. Faculty themselves shall neither act nor take decisions individually.
10. The faculty member shall carry out the administrative works of the department given by the HOD concerned.

2.2.2 In Class Room

1. The faculty member should get the lesson plan and course file - approved by the HOD and the Principal one week before the commencement of the semester.

- a) The course file is an official record, a compilation of the planning and execution of teaching/learning activities, carried out throughout a semester in an academic year for a particular subject. The course file consists of a preface, previous year university question papers, notes, handouts, PPT, pedagogical methods to be used, test/exam question papers, three model answer scripts for each test/exam (top, middle, and bottom), assignment plan, topics and copy of the assignment, feedback analysis report, etc. The teaching faculty has to get their course file verified by their HOD at least once a month. The teaching faculty must submit the course file to the concerned HOD before the end of the semester.
2. The faculty member should engage the complete duration of the class and should not leave the class early. The early exit of the faculty member from the allotted session invites disciplinary proceedings.
3. The faculty member shall check the attendance for each lecture/practical/tutorial preferably at the beginning of each lecture/practical/tutorial, and for every hour, attendance is to be marked cumulatively in the attendance register and ERP software.
4. The faculty member should interact with the mentor and inform him/her about habitual absenteeism, academically weak students, objectionable behavior, etc.
5. The faculty member may make use of suitable teaching aids wherever necessary, as well as deploy various pedagogical methods to enhance the efficacy of learning. The Faculty Member should encourage students to ask doubts/questions.
6. The faculty member should take care of academically weak students and pay special attention to their needs by holding special classes.

11. The faculty members are expected to keep themselves abreast of the latest advancements in science and technology.
 - a) The faculty Member should motivate the students and bring out the element of creativity/originality in the students.

2.2.3 In the Laboratory

1. The faculty shall be present in the respective laboratory for the entire duration of the session as per the schedule.
2. The faculty member handling laboratory class must perform the experiments personally before the commencement of the semester, be satisfied with the results, and if otherwise report the issues to the laboratory in charge.
3. The demonstration of all the experiments must mandatorily be given by the faculty and the role of the laboratory instructor must strictly be limited to the extent of overseeing the hassle-free conduction of the lab session.
4. Whenever possible, additional experiments to clarify or enlighten the students must be given by the faculty.

5. The laboratory observations/records must be corrected there and then or at least by the time the next class is handled by the faculty.
6. Faculty shall ensure that the students submit the required written records before proceeding to the next experiment/laboratory work.
7. Faculty shall provide clear instructions to the students for ensuring the diligent functioning of the laboratory.
8. Faculty must attest to the readings/findings of the experiment/program, to let the students know the percentage of error he/she commits during every experiment/program.
9. Faculty must Sign in the manual /observation book at the end of each practical class.
10. To prevent untoward events, faculty members are advised to take the following action.
 - a) Before starting the practicals/projects, students shall be asked to check the PCs/equipment, etc, and report immediately in case of any missing items/irregularity to the laboratory In-Charge.
 - b) As far as possible, allot the same PC to the same individual/same group of students (in case of projects).
 - c) Students shall be permitted to keep the bags in the specified storage areas in the laboratories.
 - d) In the case of any missing/damaged item, the matter shall be reported immediately to the Head of the department through the respective Teaching Faculty Laboratory In-Charge.

2.3 Aspects of Student-Faculty Rapport

1. The Faculty Member should act with tact, and deal with insubordination by students in a mature manner.
2. The Faculty Member should be strict but not harsh, and seldom use harsh words that could dampen the morale of students.

Objective: To help students in their pursuit of knowledge and to maintain a close watch and build rapport with students and parents.

If he refuses to do even that, the facts shall be recorded and signed by anyone Squad member /exam in Charge witnessed by the invigilator.

Objective: Assessment is expected to be a process of thorough checking and correcting of the deficiencies or mistakes; to also ensure improvements in academic performance and hence not be considered a tool to be used for judging/penalizing.

2.7 Guidelines/Instructions for Evaluation of Internal Assessment

1. It shall be mandatory for every faculty, to assess the answer books of his/her course or answer books of other courses as instructed by the Principal/HOD, within the stipulated time.
2. All the assessments of a course shall be done by the concerned faculty.

3. Collect a bundle of answer books from the IA coordinator; take a count of all the answer books in the bundle. If any difference in the number of answer books is found, the faculty shall get it clarified immediately from the IA coordinator.
4. Respective course facilitators shall prepare schemes and solutions, and get them verified by the evaluation committee before the conduction of the respective IA. The same shall be displayed in the department notice board immediately upon completion of IA.
5. Award step-wise marks for each answer as per Course outcomes by highlighting the corrections in the answer booklet wherever required.
6. Write the total marks in double digits (e.g. 01, 02, 12, etc) in the space provided on the front page of the answer book.
7. The assessed answer books shall be moderated by the evaluation committee. “Moderation” shall include checking for un-assessed answers, totaling of marks, and transfer of marks to the main page, blank pages scratched, etc. In case of any corrections, it shall be brought to the notice of the concerned faculty. The faculty shall do the required correction and then enter the marks.
8. The Concerned Course faculty /Coordinator shall prepare and display the marks of internal examination of the respective course, as per the academic calendar. He/ She shall allow the students to see the evaluated answer books of IAs. She/he shall enter the final marks in the ERP of the college within five days of the completion of that particular internal test.
9. All assessed answer books shall be preserved until communicated otherwise.
10. The concerned Faculty shall display the marks of the Internal Assessment of the Lab Course to the students at the end of each semester. He/ She shall enter the final marks in the ERP of the college within five days of the conduct of the internal lab exam.

2.8 Biometric Attendance Policy

The purpose of this policy is to establish guidelines to improve efficiency in monitoring attendance, leave records, and the overall working environment by the use of the Biometric Based Attendance Monitoring System (BBAMS).

The rules that will be followed for the operation of the system are as follows:

1. The Biometric Based Attendance Monitoring System (BBAMS) will be maintained by the Principal, whereas the matter of attendance and related policy will be dealt with in the office.
2. The term staff used in these rules would include all the teaching non-teaching and other staff of Maharaja Institute of Technology Thandavapura.
3. Adequate numbers of machines have been installed to avoid long queues and inconvenience during office opening times.
4. All staff will be required to mark their arrival and departure time in the Biometric Based Attendance Monitoring System machine without any exception.
5. Arrival in the office after 8.30 AM or departure from office before 04:10 PM will be reckoned as late punch-in/early punch-out and will be subjected to other rules mentioned herein. In exceptional cases like a consultation with doctors hospitals/attending social obligation, etc., late coming in the morning/early departure in the afternoon up to two hours (maximum,) will be allowed twice in a month subject to the condition that prior intimation/approval of the immediate superior officer has been obtained.
6. Any staff availing half-day Casual Leave in the forenoon will arrive in the BBAMS not later than 1.00 PM and the staff availing half-day Casual Leave in the afternoon will make departure entry in the BBAMS after 12:45 PM.
7. In case, any staff is to visit local offices for official purposes and the situation is such that such staff would not be able to mark attendance in the system either in the morning or evening, prior intimation regarding it must be sent to the principal via the proper channel through an e-mail.

8. All installed machines and corridors leading to these machines shall be under 24- hours' surveillance through CCTV cameras. Disciplinary/legal action shall be taken against any staff found to be tampering with the attendance monitoring system/surveillance system.

2.9 Peer Review of Teaching

The purpose of this 'Peer Review of Teaching' is to encourage teaching faculty to engage the students in an adaptive mode to promote a student-centered and activity-based teaching-learning process. A peer observation system among the teaching fraternity is practiced at the institute to enable peer support and course correction in classroom teaching and this applies to all the teaching staff of MITT.

2.9.1 Guidelines

1. All the teaching faculty shall identify and report to the HoD for approval or HoD shall allot faculty observers for peer observation with names of two colleagues per subject, who will observe and comment on his/her classroom teaching in terms of content, delivery, and effectiveness. Further, the aforesaid peer review committee shall comprise of a senior teaching faculty of the department and a member faculty with relevant specialization as that of the subject lecture being delivered. Upon the approval of the respective HoD, the faculty shall use Annexure 1 to invite the observers.
2. Observers shall handover the observation report of their findings and suggestions to the respective faculty through Annexure-II and submit a copy of the same to the respective HoD. If any drawbacks are found, the same shall be communicated by the respective HoD to the concerned faculty for corrective measures.

3. By the end of the first month of every semester, the first round of observations must have been completed for every subject and the report be submitted to the principal by the HoD.
4. The same process should be repeated in the last month of the semester to assess the impact of the same. If considerable improvements are not observable then the further course of actions shall be initiated by the Authority.

Chapter 3

ETIQUETTE AND CODE OF ETHICS

3.1 Etiquette

These are the corroboration of formal requirements and governing behavior in the institute.

3.1.1 Office Etiquette

1. Be friendly but don't give away too much personal information: When you enter the office each morning, it's normal to greet your co-workers.
2. Be considerate: When working in an open-office environment, act respectfully. It's best to address problems and concerns diplomatically before they escalate.
3. Think before you speak: When you're at the office, you need to filter your speech. There may be times when you're confronted with conflict, so be prepared and keep a level head so the issue doesn't escalate.
4. If you are ill, stay home, Don't come to work during sickness: When you have a contagious virus, it's rude to take it to the office. Not only will you get less work done, but you are also spreading your germs, and that can make other people miserable.
5. Shun noise and distractions: Noisy conversations either between workers or on the telephone or habits such as tapping on the desk, fidgeting, or getting up and down often can create an annoying distraction to those trying to concentrate.
6. Respect others' need to work: Just because they are sitting nearby doesn't mean that they are available for conversation at all times. Converse if and when necessary after politely enquiring if they can spare time to converse.
7. Respect another's space: Just because another's workspace is within reach of your desk doesn't make it a common domain. Treat each person's space as if it was a private office.
8. Be tidy: Your messy desk can be a distraction to others and will detract from the professional image your organization is trying to establish. Keep your belongings confined to your own space and tidy up your immediate area each day before leaving your workplace.

9. Be tolerant: Everyone is not going to agree with you one hundred percent of the time. Keep an open mind, listen with the intent to learn, and focus on the positive aspects of your job.
10. Be friendly to new employees: Remember what it felt like to be the newest person at the office. Smile at the new person, strike up a very brief conversation. Offer to answer any questions and comment about how you remember what it's like to be new.
11. Don't take credit for other people's accomplishments or ideas: One of the things that can ruin your reputation in an office environment is to claim someone else's ideas as your own. If a supervisor mistakenly thinks it is your idea, set the record straight, no matter how tempting it may be.
12. Think like a team: To maintain a cohesive team, do not spread gossip or cause another to feel left out. Never grumble about petty things. Hold regular meetings to set goals, share ideas, and talk about concerns.

3.1.2 Meeting etiquette

Meeting Etiquette refers to codes of behavior an individual ought to follow while attending meetings and discussions at the workplace.

1. Be on tie: Make sure you come on time and prepare for the meeting ahead of time and you don't want to waste anyone else's time by not being punctual.
2. Facilitate introduction: If everyone doesn't know one another in the meeting room, facilitate an introduction.
3. Have a strong agenda: This is part of being prepared, but you should have a good, strong agenda so that you can stay on track.

4. Sit appropriately: Adjust your chair so that your posture is well mannered, don't make unnecessary movements while seated on the chair.
5. Be Prepared: Each participant should come to the meeting with all of the materials, the required data, and an understanding of the meeting agenda.
6. Listen: Listen attentively to the meeting and take notes.
7. Speak up: When people speak in meetings they need to speak clearly so that everyone hears what they're saying.
8. Do not have your phone out: Put mobile in your pocket, keep it on vibrate.
9. Nervous Habits: Avoid nervous habits such as tapping a pen or such on the table, making audible noises with your mouth, rustling papers, or even tapping your feet on the floor.
10. Ask questions at the appropriate time: Do not be the person who starts "asking questions and adding stuff that doesn't need to be added at an inappropriate time.
11. Guests: Do not bring unannounced guests to a meeting. If you have someone you would like to bring to a meeting, then contact the chairperson for permission to bring your guest. If permission is not granted, then do not bring him.

3.2 The Code of Ethics

Principles that are deemed helpful to professionals for functioning with honesty and integrity are termed as 'the Code of Ethics'. This outlines how professionals are to approach problems and these are drawn from ethical principles based on core values of the institute and the professional standards that are to be adhered to, the mission of the institute. The repute of the institute depends on the standards and ethics that it propagates as it serves society by rendering teaching-learning activities that are carried out at the institute.

3.2.1 The 4D Ethical Principles (4DEP's)

From a wider perspective, the ethical dimensions are the very foundation incorporating the 4DEP's, comprising firstly of being attentive to the student community, focusing on the curriculum and its related activities, of teaching and learning, followed by assessment and mentoring. Last but not least incorporating the proper culture and environment at the institute.

Broadly the 4DEP's defined by the institute are;

- Student Centricity
- Curriculum and Teaching-Learning
- Mentoring and Assessment
- Institutional Culture

The aforesaid dimensions are essentially the backbone of the institute and its underlying principles are meant to further assist the staff in comprehending the right and the wrong and to have the ensuing decisions and actions based on them as well as to regulate and streamline the academic profession.

- a) Be Considerate: all members are defined as stakeholders and all are essential to the institute. Therefore barring all differences, every individual must be given due consideration.
- b) Be Respectful: find a courteous way to deal with disagreement that could ensue under various circumstances which must otherwise not lead to demeaning ends.
- c) Professional Integrity: It is the practice of maintaining ethical behavior at an expected level and the showcasing of adherence to moral and ethical principles as well as to the values of honesty, honor, dependability, and trustworthiness.
- d) Choose your words carefully: Kind words do not cost much yet they accomplish much. Words that potentiate suppression must be abhorred in all circumstances.
- e) Transform Differences into strengths: Every individual from a differing and dis-similar path can offer something unique and with diligent effort, it can potentially lead to a culmination in all-encompassing solutions.

- f) Avoid Conflict of Interest: Conflict of interests, however prevalent must be harnessed through open discussion that can contribute definitely to the integrity of the institute.
- g) Do not Harass Anyone: Explicit expressions or comments on an individual or community based on legally protected characteristics and traits are forbidden by the institute. Physical and sexual harassment characterized by making unwelcome and inappropriate sexual remarks or physical advances is not tolerated at the institute.
- h) Substance Abuse: The Institute prohibits possession, sale, manufacture, distribution, or purchase of controlled substances as well as being or working under the influence of illegal drugs, alcohol, or even substance abuse, such life-threatening, illegal ways are strictly prohibited.
- i) Tobacco Products: The use of Tobacco Products within the campus areas is explicitly prohibited.

3.3 The Code of Ethics and Conduct for Research Scholars

The institute's repute depends on the ethical standards followed by its researchers in the realm of their research endeavors. The code hence intends to outline the mannerisms of the research scholars registered for their doctoral programs specifically in dealing with the academic community, their contemporaries, and the public at large in terms of both discipline and behavior; and all the while being sincere and diligent in upholding the mission of the institute and thereby instilling greater trust amongst all stakeholders.

Some of the most important aspects of the Code of Ethics and Conduct for Research Scholars are explained below.

3.3.1 Academic Freedom, Integrity, Accountability, and Responsibility

The most all-encompassing spectra for the progress of the institute are Academic Freedom, Integrity, Accountability, and Responsibility. The institute provides academic freedom to all its researchers to pursue knowledge as well as to conduct advanced research without unreasonable interference or restriction. Researchers are given the necessary freedom to inquire in-depth into their subjects of study, to present their research findings, and to publish data and conclusions in a professionally appropriate manner.

- a) Honesty: An academic community should advance the quest for truth, knowledge, and understanding by exhibiting intellectual and personal honesty in research endeavors.
- b) Trust: An academic community should foster a climate of mutual trust to encourage a free exchange of ideas and to enable all to reach their highest potential.
- c) Fairness: An academic community should seek to ensure fairness in following established standards, practices, and procedures as well as fairness in interactions between members of the said community.
- d) Respect: It is the fundamental essence of the institute that all its stakeholders conduct themselves in a mutually respectful manner in all aspects of functionality and even more so on the research front without any discrimination to gender, caste, race, and religion.
- e) Legality: An academic community should observe valid legal norms related to the conduct and publication of research, particularly concerning copyright, the intellectual property rights of third parties, the terms and conditions regulating access to research resources, and the laws of the state and country.

3.3.2 Institutional Responsibilities

The College Governing Council, Principal, Dean(R&D), Heads of Departments, Research Supervisors, Librarian, together with the faculty members, are responsible for promoting and endorsing a transparent academic environment conducive to the application of the high professional and ethical practice for academic research.

The Dean (R&D), Heads of Departments, Research Supervisor, and Professors are expected to create and sustain a climate of mutual co-operation that facilitates the open exchange of ideas and the development of academics and research skills.

3.3.3 Publication Practice and Authorship, Notification, Archiving and Depositing

Copies of Research Publications with the Institutional Repository (IR)

The researchers are expected to publicize and disseminate the findings of their high-quality research suitably and with an awareness of the consequences/profits in the wider media. Such dissemination of knowledge must be published in a form, appropriate to the accepted academic discipline. The Institute requires that the authors accept the responsibility for the contents of their publication as well as their contributions to the same.

3.3.4 Misconduct in Academic Research

Misconduct in academic research implies (and is not limited to) fabrication, falsification, plagiarism, or deception in proposing, carrying out, or reporting the results of such research and deliberate, dangerous, or negligent deviations from accepted practice in carrying out the research. Misconduct also includes any plan or attempt to do any of the aforesaid things. It does not include honest error or honest differences in interpretation or judgment in evaluating research methods or results, or misconduct unrelated to research processes.

Misconduct includes (and is not limited to) the following activities:

- a) Plagiarism: The purposeful copying of ideas, text, data, or other work (or any combination thereof) without due permission and acknowledgment of the owner.
- b) Piracy: The deliberate exploitation of ideas from others without the proper acknowledgment of the same.

- c) Abuse of Intellectual Property Rights: Failure to observe legal norms regarding copyright and the moral rights of authors.
- d) Abuse of Research Resources: Failure to observe the terms and conditions of the utilization of research resources available to the research scholars at the institution be it the physical entities and the intellectual.
- e) Misinterpretation: The deliberate attempt to represent falsely or unfairly the ideas or work of others, whether or not for personal gain or enhancement.
- f) Fabrication and Fraud: The falsification or invention of qualifications, data, information, or citations in any formal academic exercise.
- g) Professorial misconduct: Professorial acts that are arbitrary, biased, or exploitative. Denying access to information or material: To deny others access arbitrarily to scholarly resources or to deliberately and groundlessly impede their progress.

3.3.5 The Mechanism for Detecting Plagiarism

Plagiarism detection or content similarity detection is the process of locating instances of plagiarism and/or copyright infringement within a research work or document. The following "plagiarism detection tool " is available to detect plagiarism in the research documents in the respective departments as well as at the Library and Information Center of the Institute.
